Dear Friends,

Notions like purity, honesty and elegance are the basic elements of the latest S/S 15 collection by Craig Green. With this collection the designer sets to create a new community in fashion, beyond the repetitive and obvious limitations.

This was Craig's first solo show which was recently presented at London Collections: Men through the NEWGEN MEN initiative. The collection can now be seen in Paris at London Show Rooms Men from 27th June-02nd July.

Atopos cvc has been following and supporting Craig Green through the 'Mon Petit Chou' project since the first steps in his career. 'Mon Petit Chou' is a project created by Atopos to observe and to assist in a supportive and collaborative way the progress of a young artist from the beginning of their career. In return, the artist provides Atopos with some of their work which then become part of the Atopos collection.

Atopos cvc will be taking part in the exhibition 'Resistance' with two Craig Green pieces belonging to the Atopos Collection. The exhibition is organized by the Heart - Herning Museum, Denmark and will be presented from 26th September until 25th January of 2015.

With our best wishes,

Stamos Fafalios, Vassilis Zidianakis, Angelos Tsourapas
The Atopos cvc collective
